INDICTMENT

United States of America,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Robert Stoddard,

Defendant.

Violation: 18 USC §111 (a)(1)

(Assault on a Federal Officer)

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

That on or about January 9, 2009, at or near Tucson, in the District of Arizona, the defendant, Robert Stoddard, did intentionally and forcibly assault, resist, oppose, impede, intimidate, and interfere with Federal Corrections Officer Christopher Hozey, an officer of the United States or any agency thereof, to an extent not constituting simple assault, by spitting on his face and upper chest area, while Federal Corrections Officer Christopher Hozey was engaged in the performance of his official duties, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 111(a)(1).
